

European Assyrians Protest Iraqi Vote Lockout

Posted GMT 2-14-2005 22:16:53

Brussels (AINA) -- Following demonstrations held in Baghdad, Stockholm, London, brussels, Detroit and other cities throughout the world, the ChaldoAssyrian Syriac communities of France, Germany, Netherlands, Belgium and the United Kingdom, held a demonstration on Monday February 14th 2005 at 1 PM at the Ambriorix Square in Brussels. The Demonstration was to protest the lockout of Assyrian voters in Iraq. In a memorandum sent to the president of the European Parliament, a coalition of Assyrian organizations urged the EU to open an investigation into the voter lockouts. The demonstration was sponsored by the following Assyrian organizations:

- Assyrian Democratic Organisation (ADO) -- Abroad sections
- Assyrian Democratic Movement (ADM) -- Europe
- Shuraya Party -- Europe
- Assyrian Liberation Party (GFA)
- Diyzesanrat der Syrisch-Orthodoxen Kirche von Antiochien in Deutschland
- Assyrian Federation in Sweden (ARS)
- Assyrian Federation in Europe (ZAVD)
- Tour Abdin Federation in Holland
- Association des Assyro-chaldyens de France
- Assyrian Society of the United Kingdom
- Institut Assyrien d'Europe (INASE) -- Bruxelles
- Federation syriacque arameenne de Belgique
- Centre Culturel de la Tour de Babel -- Bruxelles
- Assyrische Gemeenschap -- Mechelen
- Ninive Kultureel sportief ontmoetingscentrum -- Antwerpen

Assyrian International News Agency

© 2011, Assyrian International News Agency. All Rights Reserved. Terms of Use.