

Swedish Journalist Investigates Arrest of Assyrian-Georgian General

Posted GMT 9-20-2006 17:48:16

Tbilisi, Georgia (AINA) -- The arrest and false accusation of Boris Ivanov (bio) is now given a lot of attention in the Georgian media. The Swedish Assyrian investigative journalist (one of Europe's most awarded) is in Tbilisi (Georgia) to investigate the accusations. According to the newspaper "Georgian Times" and the TV news "Imedi" Nuri Kino has met many eyewitnesses, represents of the authorities and government.

Nuri Kino's outcome is that the arrest of Boris Ivanov was a big misunderstanding based on a wrong accusation.

Nuri Kino interviewing Lili Ivanova (Boris Ivanov's sister) and Sergei Masolov (Ivanov's nephew).

We, from the Assyrian International Congress of Georgia refer to Assyrian Organizations, Assyrian personalities and every Assyrian in the world to write letters and show that Assyrians don't allow fellow Assyrians being mistreated.

Please send your protests to:

Mr. Mikhail Saakashvili, President of Georgia

Fax: (+99532) 99-58-96 or (+99532) 99-00-70

E-mail: pr@president.gov.ge

Mrs. Elene Tevdoradze, Chairperson of the Committee on Human Rights and Civil Integration

Fax: (+99532) 92 15 63

Mrs. Lali Papiashvili, Deputy Chairperson of the Committee on Human Rights and Civil Integration

e-mail: lali@parliament.ge

Mr. Sozar Subari, Public Defender (Ombudsman) of Georgia

Fax: (+99532) 922 470

e-mail: subari@ombudsman.ge

www.ombudsman.ge

© 2011, Assyrian International News Agency. All Rights Reserved. Terms of Use.